 REDACTED

Dear REDACTED,

Thank you for your letter concerning the problem in the Tweed Heads Parish.

You may wonder why it has taken me so long to take some action in the matter. The fact is that I have been given no information about the matter. In your letter you mention "Police, solicitors, ministers of other religions, people of other denominations, restaurant owners, and club personnel" who have spoken to you. Until they speak to me and give me specific details of incidents that they are prepared to substantiate, then there is not much that I can do. So far all I have had has been in the nature of rumour and innuendo from people who are either anonymous or who do not want to be quoted.

I can understand that you do not want your names to be used and I certainly will not do so without your permission.

At this stage all I can tell you is that I have initiated steps that I hope will bring a solution to the problem.

Yours sincerely,

John Satterthwaite

BISHOP OF LISMORE
