do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:

In December, 1985 I went to Tweed Heads with friends , REDACTED REDACTED

The three of us visited Father Brown, who was known to REDACT REDACT from two years previously. Father Brown lives in a two-storey brown house located next door to the Catholic Church.

Father Brown had a lot of alcohol in cupboards and in the refrigerator. While we were there he allowed us to drink alcohol, and to get drunk.

When we were drunk Father Brown asked REDA to sit on his knee. We were in the room with the television. REDA said he was getting too old to sit on Father Brown's knee. After that Father Brown asked me to come into another room on my own. He rubbed his hand on the inside of the top of my leg. I asked him not to do that and he stopped.

After this happened we were angry with Father Brown and stole five bags from his home. Four bags contained money and we were later charged with stealing it. The other bag contained magazines which looked as though they were German. They had photographs of boys aged fourteen years and less who were naked and involved in sexual acts. The names of children known to REDACT and I, and who had stayed at the Youth Refuge at Tweed Heads, were written in handwriting on these magazines. We hid the bag with the magazines and later informed Sutherland Detectives, Fisher and Harbin, where the magazines could be found.

Before visiting Father Brown we did not know that he would want physical contact with us.

Father Brown has contact with the Youth Refuge at Tweed Heads, and told us that he has another house and is wanting to start a second refuge. I am reporting this because I don't want this to happen to other young people who might visit Father Brown or stay at the refuge.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the "Oaths Act of 1900-1953".
