Dear Father O'Gorman,

As you are aware there has been considerable concern felt over the state of Father Rex Brown's health and the effect that this is having on the parish of Tweed Heads.

I would be grateful if you would contact Father Brown and arrange to visit the parish, meet people, and report back to me on your finding.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Father Brown,

Following on the suggestion you make in your letter of 14th April I am asking Father Bill Mills to visit Tweed Heads and meet with people there. He can report back to me on both the state of the parish and your own condition.

I will leave it to the two of you to arrange times that are suitable.

You also mentioned in your letter that the parish finances are in good order and that this can be verified. In fairness to you I feel that this should be done. I am asking Mr Bernard Sullivan to examine the financial records and report back to me. I make it clear I am not making any accusations. I simply wish to verify something about which there appears to be some disagreement. Enclosed is a copy of my letter to Mr Sullivan.

I repeat what I have said in all my previous letters, that my only concern is your own welfare and that of the parish of Tweed Heads.

Yours sincerely,

+ John Satterthwaite
