8th May, 1986

My Lord,

I acknowledge your letter, which though dated 22nd April, did not reach me until 1st May. No doubt Anzac had something to do with that. There has therefore been little opportunity for me to do anything, since life in a parish still has to go on.

In any case, I refer you to my letter of 15th April, in which I oppose nothing at all.

I requested, and do again, to see documents which at least seven priests have seen and discussed, unbeknownst to me.

I am aware that a great deal of information concerning me has emanated from that meeting on 18th March. It is called defamation.
