Your Excellency,

RE: FATHER PAUL REX BROWN (removal as parish priest)

During July, 1986, you kindly forwarded to His Eminence, the Cardinal Prefect of the Sacred Congregation for the Clergy, the Acts of the Case concerning the Process for the Removal (in accord with CIC can. 1741) of Father Brown as parish priest of Tweed Heads in this Diocese.

My most recent correspondence with you on this subject was dated 2nd December, 1986. In that letter, I asked Your Excellency to help in any possible way to expedite the case, for the sake of good order among the parishioners of Tweed Heads parish.

I am most grateful for Your Excellency's help, as I have since received from the Sacred Congregation for the Clergy, the text of the Brief of Father Brown's Advocate.

I would be grateful if Your Excellency would forward this reply to the Sacred Congregation at the earliest opportunity.

Again I am appreciative of the advice and assistance which Your Excellency has given throughout this very unfortunate case.

With brotherly esteem,

Yours sincerely,

John Satterthwaite
BISHOP OF LISMORE.
