

DK [redacted] – Spoke with Michael Salmon 23rd February 2010

I spoke with Michael Salmon 23rd February 2010 regarding his mediation of the DK [redacted] matter. Michael is happy to be the mediator in the process. I informed him that I had raised the question with DK [redacted] pointing out clearly to him that Michael Salmon was employed by the Church to oversee the implementation of Towards Healing and was an experienced and qualified mediator. DK [redacted] saw no trouble with this. Michael has all the material relevant to the DK [redacted] matter and agreed to be in touch with DK [redacted] in the near future.

Michael will also contact the police in the conventional notification process that we have regarding this matter mentioning the complaint against Murrin but not mentioning the name of the complainant. I also indicated that the appointment had been made with Professor Harvey Whiteford at the request of CCI. The DK [redacted] matter does come under the policy CCI has with the Marist Brothers. Michael Salmon agreed to clarify with DK [redacted] in his discussions with him whether or not his barrister friend would be there as a support person or would take part in the legal financial discussions. This has an effect on who else is present supporting the Marist Brothers. Joe Bucci is aware of this matter and the steps that we have taken. There will be follow up with Professor Whiteford to see if it can be assured that he will have the summary of DK [redacted]'s matter completed by March 30. DK [redacted] is due to see Professor Whiteford on 17th March 2010. I also discussed the preliminary interviews with Brother Gerald and Brother Andrew Moraghan with DK [redacted] earlier on the day of the mediation. At present both are scheduled for the same day but this could be changed if necessary. DK [redacted] is aware that Brother Peter Rodney is overseas and he is still very keen to speak with him when he comes back. I indicated that this would not be a problem.

Alexis