Alex

Good morning from sunny and humid MAPAC.

Please find attached a draft of my response to DK I would appreciate your suggestions. I am trying to respond clearly to the two issues he raises without a long or defensive answer. Also, I want to get back to him as quickly as possible as a sign of my seriousness and concern.

Finally, I shall be home on leave in April. What is your advice about offering to meet him? My plan is to wait and see what response my response gets before making the offer to him. I presume he still lives in DK Probably it would be best for him to select the location, preferably away from his home and family. I would need to fly to Brisbane for the day.

Thanks for the assistance from your experience.

With fraternal best wishes

Peter
