2ND March, 1999.

Dear Bishop John,

The attached letter is from a victim of Francis Edward Derriman. She gave evidence against him in his recent court case at which he was convicted.

She asks that the Church does the following:

- Apologise;
- Provide on-going counselling;
- Provide compensation.

I suggest the following process:

1. Find out what the insurance will pay in the form of compensation. The Church lawyers may need to get a copy of her court transcript.
2. I arrange a facilitated meeting for you to meet with Joan Isaacs and her husband. (This could take place when you are feeling better).

I will give you a ring next week or when you are available to discuss the matter.

Regards,

Ken Robertson.

P.S. If it suits you I can obtain the court transcripts
