My Code for Keeping SAFE

1. Unwanted Touching:

Hugs, kisses and touching that make me feel uncomfortable, embarrassed or scared must never be kept secret.

2. BODY:

My body belongs to me and no one can touch it in ways that make me feel uncomfortable, embarrassed or scared.

3. NO:

It's OK to say NO if someone tries to touch me in ways that make me feel uncomfortable, embarrassed or scared. It doesn't matter who they are even if it is a teacher, coach, priest, minister, pastor you worker, parent, relative, a bigger person or another child or young person.

4. YELL:

It's OK to yell out loud if I am scared and need help, just the same if there was a fire, a car accident or any other emergency. Touching can be on sort of personal emergency where it is OK to yell and tell.

5. TELL

I must tell a grown-up if someone has told me to keep a secret about a touch that has made me feel uncomfortable, embarrassed or scared. Never keep secrets about these kinds of touch.

6. SECRETS

Unsafe secrets are those secrets that some says 'you mustn't tell'; they last a long time; they make you feel uncomfortable, embarrassed or unsafe; can involve a threat that something bad will happen if you tell.

Safe secrets are those which can be kept for a short time and are safe; usually have a happy outcome; are always told eventually; do not involve someone touching your body.

ACT SMART - FOLLOW

THE CODE FOR KEEPING SAFE

Sometimes children and young people don't feel safe around other young people and adults. There are times when other students and adults act in a way that might make them feel unsafe, embarrassed, scared and or confused.

REMEMBER:

NOTHING IS SO AWFUL THAT WE CANT TALK TO SOMEONE WE FEEL SAFE AROUND AND WHO WE BELIEVE WILL HELP US TO BE SAFE.

Some adults I can tell and go to for help:

- Parents
- Family Members
- Teacher
- School counsellor

Sometimes we can't tell people in our family about feeling unsafe because ti is too embarrassing or we feel scared. At school there are SPECIAL PEOPLE who look after students who are feeling unsafe or scared. They are called STUDENT PROTECTION

CONTACTS.

They know how to get help for students.
