Invitation from Archbishop Roger Herft AM

Were you or a family member sexually abused as a child within an Anglican organisation?

If so, we support and encourage you to contact the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.

The Anglican Church has established a Pastoral Support Group to assist you to contact the Royal Commission.

Members of the Support Group are available to

- inform you of the range of services available through the Commission,
- reassure you that the Anglican Church encourages and supports you to contact the Royal Commission particularly if you are concerned your contacting the Commission is being disloyal to the Church.

The Anglican Church welcomes the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. The inquiry will assist the call made by the Anglican Church to put proper mechanisms into place to safeguard vulnerable people in our Church and community.

Confidential enquiries can be made to the members of the Pastoral Support Group:
