Dear Colleagues,

If a student approaches you with any form of disclosure about the incidents as discussed this morning by the Headmaster, you are asked not to engage in discussion, but inform the student that you will accompany them to the appropriate person who can speak with them and provide advice. The people to contact are me, REDACTED

REDACTED

As referred to by the Headmaster yesterday, support is also available to staff through me, REDACTED and more importantly from each other.

With regards,
