Dear YM

I am writing to let you know that following the cross-examination of YJ in court on Friday and the subsequent character referees that he engaged to take the stand on his behalf, I am concerned for the protection of YL and WP identity as well as the other complainants and their siblings. REDACTED is in the same house as YL and his mother YI was one of YJ's character witnesses, as was REDACTED

REDACTED and REDACTED

YL is due to fly out to New York on the School Arts Tour with REDACTED and REDACTED on Wednesday. While YL is fully informed of what is going on with this court case, I have not disclosed what is going on to them. I would feel comfortable if both of these teachers were informed for the sake of their position and their duty of care responsibilities while they are away and I trust both of them with my son and his welfare. I am aware and sensitive to the fact that there may be possible 'fallout' in the lead up to, and when a verdict is brought down, quite likely before they depart. I feel I am in a difficult position in this matter and so is YL. He does not want his Head of House knowing what is going on or approaching him on these issues, certainly not at this point.

I will be in court again this week following the proceedings, but can be contacted today, or in the evenings by phone, or email.

Kind regards

WQ
