WM informed me that WW's Family asked for an impromptu meeting at 4pm yesterday. REDACTED was present.

They wanted to express their disappointment with the Prep School's lack of support as the YJ affair has unfolded. It was apparently a level headed conversation where WM and REDACTED did little of the talking and most of the listening.

WM mentioned that the family stated that they were considering their 'options' - a comment that was interpreted as meaning legal action.

For your information only. I am not sure whether or not they had received the School's 'offer' letter. If not, they should do so today.

Regards,

WD
