Dear WD

I wanted to write to express my absolute shock at the news of the charges laid against YJ. I found the news utterly unfathomable. I have only ever known YJ as a kind, gentle and morally upright man, a wonderful, inspirational teacher and a model for my children to emulate.

I wanted to lend my support to YJ in this extraordinarily difficult time for him and wondered if it was possible for you to pass that on to him?

My older son, RED ACT had the privilege of having YJ as his teacher last year and is currently deeply upset and angry at what he perceives to be the injustice of the situation. My younger son, REDACT is saddened that the potential to have YJ as his teacher next year has now evaporated. And REDACT and I are profoundly saddened that the school has now lost such a remarkable teacher, guide and gentleman, particularly under such ignominious circumstances.

Could you please convey to YJ our thoughts, prayers, love and support particularly at this time?

With kind regards,

REDACTED
