

- All members are bound by SAL's Constituent Documents and the effect of membership is set out at clause 17 of SAL's Constitution.
- All Members 'shall comply with and observe SAL's Constitution and By-Laws and any determination, resolution or policy which may be made by the Board.
- By submitting to the Constitution the Members are subject to the jurisdiction of SAL.
- Individuals who are members of Clubs, and State/Territory entities are categorised as Individual Members of SAL.
- Clubs, Districts, State and Territory associations and SAL all have provision for Life Members who are in-turn classified as Individual Members of SAL