

Notes from conversation at 1257 on Tue 1 Dec –

Lachlan Searle with Adam Walters – Daily Telegraph – Political reporter

Issue One

Looking into Strike Force Solano

Involving Terry Buck – former Australian swimmer, coach and team manager

Set up in late 2000 following allegations of sexual abuse in the 1960s – with one victim coming forward
4 month investigation

Alleged victims said to include four gold medallists, national champions and three people who have since committed suicide

Main complaint and victim said to be a former Australian swimming team captain

Secondary story surrounding Dawn Fraser not being happy with Buck's involvement during Sydney 2000

Third story looking at why police dropped the task force

Looking for comment from Swimming Australia and will email questions and background

Issue Two

REDACTED

