Dear Margaret

Re: Pathology Update 2004, RCPA

The Organising Committee of Pathology Update 2004 is pleased to invite you to participate in the Forensic Program for the meeting.

The Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia's Pathology Update 2004 will be held at the Sydney Convention Centre, Darling Harbour, from 12-14 March 2004. A Pathology Professional Activities day will be held on Friday 12 March, followed by the various discipline programs on Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 March 2004. It is anticipated that up to 900 delegates will participate in the meeting.

The aim of Pathology Update is to present topics in an update format, relevant to Fellows, Trainees and laboratory scientists. The details of your presentation are as follows:

Topic: Sexual Assault Examinations
Date: Sunday 14 March 2004
Time: 9.00am to 10.30am

Should you wish to change the topic, please provide your amended title on the attached Speaker Invitation Acceptance form.

All speakers are asked to provide a 1-3 page summary of their presentation, including key references. These will be included, with your permission, in the Program Book provided at the conference and on a CD distributed to the registrants and available for sale after the event. In order to ensure your notes are included in the printed Program books, it would be appreciated if you could email them to annaj@rcpa.edu.au by 15 December 2003.

Your registration fee for the conference will be complimentary. Interstate speakers are asked to complete the enclosed form for the College to arrange flights and accommodation.
