

ANNEXURE A

1. The conduct of civil litigation involving allegations of child sexual abuse in an institutional context, with specific reference to:
  - a. the policies, procedures or practices, if any, informing the CSO / State's approach to such civil litigation;
  - b. the application of the Model Litigant Policy in the context of such litigation;
  - c. the effectiveness of civil litigation as a means of achieving redress for a victim of child sexual abuse in an institutional context, including by reference to any or all of the issues identified in the Royal Commission's Issues Paper 5 on Civil Litigation (attached), released on 6 December 2013.