Dear Jodie

Further to Evangelos' email (attached), I would be grateful if the Crown could provide a brief advice on the following:

Mr Cashion and Mr Arblaster recommend a "targeted" settlement strategy, whereas Mr Wood prefers the approach to make offers to all plaintiffs. Could Mr Woods please provide a very brief explanation as to why he prefers this approach?

If a targeted strategy was pursued, could you briefly provide an analysis of each plaintiff and the order in which they would be approached and estimated costs?

Kind regards

Joanna
