Media Release

Adar 5773 – February 2013

Being conscious of the fact that there are members of our community who claim to have been subjected to inappropriate sexual behaviour by trusted officials within the community, the RCV wishes to reaffirm its strong position in relation to the matter of sexual abuse.

The RCV policy in relation to the issue of sexual abuse can be found at:

RCV President, Rabbi Meir Shlomo Kluwgant said "It is essential that when abuse has occurred the police must be informed without delay".

At a Special General Meeting of the Association held on 13 February 2013, the RCV reaffirmed its commitment to addressing the issue of sexual abuse within the Jewish community.
