RCV responds to media coverage over allegations of sexual abuse by a local rabbi

In response to recent media coverage over allegations of sexual abuse by a local rabbi, the Rabbinical Council of Victoria (RCV) takes this opportunity to once again reiterate its long held position that the police are the only address for accusations of this nature, and to urge anyone with any knowledge or suspicions of sexual abuse to inform the police.

The RCV has full confidence in Victoria's judicial process, and trusts that this matter will be dealt with accordingly.
