Hi Lisel,

Thank you so much for forwarding your submissions. It gives me a great deal of reassurance to see it in writing. I am sure that the other families would most definitely be interested in this material. I will let them know that they can contact you for a copy.

Sincere thanks,

CDW

Subject: sentencing submissions

Hi CDW

I am glad the perfume perhaps made up slightly for my late email...

I have attached the sentencing submissions I prepared and which were filed with the Court last month. As I said earlier, this is the basis for the sentencing but I will not reiterate all of these points in Court. His Honour will have had ample time to consider these submissions. I will also send these submissions to the other families if they are interested.

Please drop me a line if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Hi Lisel,

Thank you for your email, which I have only picked up now on my return from the city. You will no doubt now have the signed copy which I dropped off at the DPP this morning after speaking with Paul Kettlewell ... I went direct to the city after dropping my other son off to school ... well before you sent your answer. Never mind ... it gave me the chance to buy a rather nice bottle of perfume that I had wanted to get for ages ... so it wasn't a wasted trip at all.

I would certainly appreciate it if you could email me a copy of your written submissions for our records.

Kind regards,

CDW

Hi CDW

Thank you for your email. There is no need for the VIS to be signed. Often they are but it will have no greater weight if it is signed or unsigned. I have already forwarded the copy originally sent to me to the Court so you don't need to bring me a new copy.

As Justin may have foreshadowed we have already filed written sentencing submissions with the Court and the sentencing appearance on Friday will not be a reiteration of everything that has been submitted, but rather will highlight key points. I can send you a copy of these written submissions later this afternoon if you would like so you have some idea of the 'extra' submissions made that will not necessarily be discussed on Friday.

Kind regards,
