

ATTACHMENT "A"

ALAN'S CAREER

12 December 1951	Graduation from Royal Military College, 'Duntroon'.
1952	The University of Melbourne, (BSc degree)
December 1952 till	16 National Service Training Batalion, Puckapunyal
13 April 1953	4RAR Ingleburn till July
24 July 1953	3RAR Korea - Second-in-charge Signal Platoon, 3 Batalion for 6 months till December
December 1953 to June 1954	Platoon Commander "C Company"
19 June 1954 to November 5 1954	ADC to GOC 1 Commonwealth Division
December 1954	Home
17 January 1955	Posted to Army Headquarters Signal Regiment, Albert Park
24 February 1955	Central Command Signals Squadron till 16.9.57
1955-1957	Adjutant in Central Command, Signal Squadron, Adelaide for 2 years. During this time was Army Observer at the atom trials at Maralinga - duration of 4-5 days.
16 September 1957 to 24 June 1958	School of Signals, Balcombe.
25 June 1958	Posted to Officer Cadet School, Portsea for 2 years.
20 June 1960	Posted to 101 Wrls Regiment, Cabarlah.
28 April 1961	Posted to England for 6 months. Followed by posting to Germany for 18 months. (Upon arrival in the U.K. was promoted to Major - worked in the War Office, DMI, London. In Germany, Operations Officer of 13 Signal Regiment.)
26 August 1963	Home. Posted to Canberra Army Headquarters, DMI (MI8).
28 January 1965	Staff College, Queenscliff.
24 January 1966	Posted to Jungle Training Centre, Kanungra, Queensland as Instructor, Tactics Wing.
26 June, 1967	After 16 months was promoted to Lieutenant-Colonel and became Chief Instructor, Tactics Wing.

10 June 1968 Posted as Commanding Officer, 7 Signal Regiment, Cabarlah.

4 January 1971 Posted to Headquarters, Southern Command, Melbourne as GSO1.

9 December 1972 Posted to Army Apprentices School, Balcombe as Commandant.

6 January 1976 Left Balcombe in December. Posted to Canberra CONACA (Controller Army Communications Agency) and promoted to Colonel.

30 January 1978 Joined Defence Communications Systems Division, Department of Defence as Director of Operations.

14 December 1979 Director of Co-ordination, Army Headquarters.

15 December 1980 Director of Army Information Services, Army HQ.

20 April 1983 Posted to Director-General of Army Training and became Director of Training Operations.

14 Febreuary 1985 Retired.

ALAN CAR
