G'day CJE,

Thanks for speaking with me today. I am glad to hear that things are going well and you are enjoying your studies.

As discussed, I will contact CJF later today to advise her that there is no longer a requirement for her to continue as your AAFC support person.

CJF is a highly conscientious person, and I have no doubt she will continue to offer you private support. However for her own well being it is important that she not feel obligated or burdened to continue to do so in her capacity as an AAFC Officer.

Thank you for your understanding and I will respect your wish not to have another AAFC or RAAF Officer appointed as a support person at this time. Your funding for your psychological support will remain available to you for the feasible future and I hope you will find it of use.

Should you feel the need for any further support or advice please feel free to contact me at anytime.

Regards,

Sean

G'day CJE,
Sorry for tardiness, I have been out of office all last week.
Is it alright to give you a call tomorrow?
Cheers,
Sean

Evening Sir,

Yeah I'm not too bad, yourself? If you can give me a call tomorrow at 12 that should be okay, I actually go back to uni tomorrow.

Thank you
CJE

G'day CJE
I hope you are still enjoying uni. You may recall my name is Sean and I am your POC at CB-AF.
I just wanted to check in with you and see if there a suitable time that I can give you call to chat about how you're now travelling?
Cheers,

Sean
