UNCLASSIFIED

G'day Sir,

As requested. Suggestions below:

Defence is aware of allegations of inappropriate behaviour between an Australian Air Force Cadet (AAFC) instructor and cadets.

These allegations were referred to the NSW Police by the AAFC.

NSW Police have reviewed these allegations and do not intend to take action in this matter.

The AAFC takes all allegations of inappropriate behaviour seriously and is currently conducting an investigation.

The AAFC instructor involved has been suspended from AAFC duties pending the outcome of this investigation.

The safety and wellbeing of AAFC cadets and staff is our highest priority and Defence is currently providing support to all those involved.

Regards,
Sean

Please review the following contingency talking points in the event that NSW Police decide to NOT proceed.

8/06/2016

Defence is aware of a report of unacceptable behaviour relating to conduct between an Australian Air Force Cadet (AAFC) instructor and cadets.

The AAFC staff member has been suspended from all AAFC duties while this matter is investigated.

The matter was referred to the NSW Police.

Administrative action by the AAFC has now resumed following advice from NSW Police that they do not intend to take any action.

Defence has a zero tolerance for unacceptable behaviour which is not in keeping with the standards we expect of our AAFC instructors.

Defence is providing support to all those involved.
