Support to CWOFF CJE and Family

On the evening of Thursday 27 Jul 13 SQNLDR Jacqueline Hatch was assigned as the CB-AF support member to CWOFF CJE and her family. At this time support to CWOFF CJE and her family was going through PLTOFF (AAFC) CJF, including several emails offering professional support services.

CJE's legal guardian CJP and her mother Ms CJO were both contacted separately by phone by the CB-AF Support member on 3 Jul to confirm the CB-AF support arrangements for CWOFF CJE and her family. While CJO was initially upset during this phone call, her frustrations appeared to be with the lack of action taken to date by the NSW police in relation to the LAC Adams investigation. CJP was understanding of the NSW Police process during this phone call and was happy with the support arrangements in place for his daughter.

On Monday 7 Jul 13 SQNLDR Hatch visited CWOFF CJE at RAAF Base Wagga and spent approx two hours discussing a variety of matters with the cadet. At the request of the cadet PLTOFF (AAFC) CJF was present at this meeting. Following this meeting SQNLDR Hatch has been in regular contact with both Mr CJP and CJO via email and on occasion via phone calls with Mr CJP.

CB-AF have paid invoices for professional counselling services for both CJO and her current husband. CWOFF CJE has also sought personal counselling, her first appointment was the 30 Jul 13, the CB-AF support member has been advised that CWOFF CJE will continue with weekly counselling sessions in the short term.

This level of support will continue to be provided to CWOFF CJE and her parents.

Support to other AAFC Members

The AAFC through SQNLDR (AAFC) Banfield are providing support to the other female members involved in the matter. These families are happy with the current support arrangements and have been offered financial support for professional Counselling services.

NSW Police Investigation

On 4 Jul 13 a letter was sent to the NSW Police, outlining the professional relationship and supervisory responsibilities between AAFC Adult Staff and Cadet Instructors. At the request of the NSW Police further information relating to LAC Adams and AAFC Policy was sent to the NSW Police on 09 Jul 13. Additional information is continuing to be sought from the AAFC to pass on to the NSW police.

COMCARE Investigation

On Fri 26 Jul 13 a comprehensive package of information was sent to COMCARE in relation to this matter. This information include the names of those involved and support services that were currently being provided to all concerned. At this stage COMCARE have not requested any further information.

ADFIS Involvement

ADFIS were advised of the NSW Police investigation on 16 Jun 13. ADFIS remain in contact with the NSW Police and will continue to monitor this investigation.
