Dear Gwen,

This morning I receiving on my message bank a call from a member of the Professional Standards Committee requesting that I return the call as the member wished to raise some points with me about yesterday's PSC meeting.

I arranged for my secretary to telephone the person indicating that such contact with me was inappropriate and that any issues needing to be raised should be forwarded to you as the Chair of the PSC. I also requested my secretary politely to make it clear that it was imperative that members of the PSC and I followed the protocol so that no possibility of impropriety could be inferred. My secretary will be making a file note of her action.

You might need to reinforce the function of the PSC and its necessary distance from me as the Bishop to the members of the PSC so that no one acts inappropriately.

Grace and peace,

+Brian
