INCIDENT:
 On Monday 7th of August CLB and I were having a shower, when him and I got into a water fight. This was only intended as a game and never was an attempt at 'bullying'. The following night CLB put toothpaste on my face at 2 o'clock in the morning as a payback for our water fight. This made me very angry as I was hard at study and not in the mood.
 On the 11th / 8 / 2000 at recess I decided to get CLB back with the help of my friends DFC DFD & myself. I held CLB down and was unaware of what DFC was doing ^{to him at the time} DFD put 'shoe polish' on CLB face, ~~as~~ because CLB had placed toothpaste on my face the night before. This led to CLB getting angry as I was when CLB put toothpaste on me.
 At the time I never intended on bullying him and I was not apart of the incident with REDACTED and was unaware of any other incidents that happened on that day. I believe we both were in the wrong and this was not an attempt to bully him but rather as a payback for what he did to me.
