Dear Milton,

On behalf of <sup>DFA</sup> and his Mother I am writing to you for assistance.

As you are well aware this matter is getting more and more complex and unfortunately public. I was shocked to read the Sydney newspapers recently with their graphic and exaggerated descriptions. I have spent hours talking to <sup>DFA</sup> and <sup>REDACT</sup> not to mention the lawyers – this is really getting out of control. I even made a trip to Sydney.

As the legal system takes its time and no alternative resolution appears likely in the immediate future both <sup>REDACT</sup> and I find ourselves in a dilemma in respect of <sup>DFA</sup>'s schooling.

My hopes of <sup>DFA</sup> being able to complete his schooling at Trinity with the possibility of being a <sup>REDACTED</sup> <sup>REDACTED</sup> now looks impracticable if not impossible. Having missed already the last term of 2000 and being "restricted" from attending Trinity until probably after the Court's decision will greatly affect <sup>DFA</sup>'s education – and his education is my number one concern/consideration.

Accordingly, <sup>REDACT</sup> and I are now forced to consider an alternative to Trinity.

When I met with <sup>DFA</sup> and <sup>REDACTE</sup> we identified a number of schools in Sydney and country NSW that could offer <sup>DFA</sup> some, if not all, of the facilities/activities of Trinity. We intend to explore various options including the possibility of sending DFA to a school as a "day boy".

We have identified the following schools:

- REDACTED
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

REDACTED has arranged meetings with REDACTED and REDACTED and today met with REDACTED. In respect of REDACTED I would ask you to please contact REDACTED at the school on REDACTED (direct) or on his mobile REDACTED as he has been very understanding of the circumstances surrounding our approach. In fact, we have been invited to submit an application for enrolment.

I understand from REDACTED that you have already spoken to both of the REDACTED schools and I thank you for your assistance. I am certain that you will appreciate the difficult position DFA is in and until everything is resolved may I ask that if necessary we can refer other Headmasters/Enrolment Officers of the other school(s) directly to you.

In this respect, I would personally appreciate it if you would call REDACTED and call and/or write to the REDACTED as this is one of our "preferred" schools.

I thank you for your frankness to date and trust that we can maintain our open line of communication. I hope you and Sue had a great Christmas and that 2001 is a prosperous year for us all.

Yours sincerely,

REDACTED
