I think we also need to get a legal opinion on the letter as restitution is mentioned.

I would like to see something in writing as to where we stand.

Dear Ahimsadhara

Please find attached with my modifications. I've suggested placing your personal history at the end as an annexure so it doesn't distract from your primary objective.

With regards to Alecia's letter. The only comment that concerns me is the last paragraph where she refers to restitution. We are not in a position to offer financial restitution and need to make this clear...maybe not in this letter however.

There is a big difference between acknowledgement, recognition and apologising; and restitution. It is interesting to note that the Stolen Generation Apology involved no restitution.

Kind regards

Subject: Aleacia correspondence

Hari Om,

attached is the letter received by Kriyatma (by registered post) and a draft reply. The last paragraph of Aleacia's letter is my concern.

Thanks,

Ahimsa
