Hi Yogasandhan

Please find attached the process description for working with children which provides a step by step approach. I believe it's necessary to distinguish between the registered training organisation and the Ashram retreat services.

The process description will take you through the how to's from registering to making an application.

Believe it or not, this is going to change again in February next year and the Process Description provides a bit of an overview on the change.

Let me know if you want to discuss

Bert Franzen
