Re: POLICE CHECKS

We refer to your police check application and wish to advise that the following person/people has/ have been cleared:

REDACTED

10/770	ROYCE COLIN	COMBER		M	REDACTED	1988	AUSTRALIA
--------	-------------	--------	--	---	----------	------	-----------

REDACTED

PLEASE NOTE:

The above criminal record checks do not cover child related offences for paid or unpaid employees. For these checks contact the NSW Commission for Children and Young People.

- (1) Criminal Record Checks carried out by the Department of Ageing, Disability and Home Care (DADHC) cover the state of NSW only.
- (2) In respect of person employed in any position involving people with disability, criminal record checks for offences in the nature of assault, rape and other acts of a sexual assault or similar nature will be undertaken by DADHC for an unlimited period. This is subject to Section 7 of the Criminal Records Act 1991 which provides for certain offences to become 'spent' at the completion of a 10 year crime free period. A spent offence will not show up on DADHC's criminal record check of the individual. This will include assault offences for which a sentence of less than six months imprisonment was received, but not offences of sexual assault or similar sexual offences.
