Angelo

My preference is that Michael also consider Maxwell's affidavit if he is able to do so. Not only would his comments be helpful but there are likely to be issues we will want to run past him in the coming weeks in relation to the contents of the proposed bundle of subpoenaed documents and he will be better placed to address those issues if he has considered Maxwell's evidence.

Michael,

I refer to my email earlirt today concerning Peter Maxwell's affidavit.

It has been signed. You will of course be briefed with a filed version of the affidavit. I mention that apart from some typos, the only other amendment to the signed version was at para 36. The second sentence beginning with "With the exception of the 2001 Police investigation....." has been deleted.

Paul Arblaster has indicated a preference to reviewing the signed affidavit and exhibits, with which i am agreeable. It is being delivered to him as I write this, and I hope to have the original copied (10 copies) tomorrow afternoon, filed monday morning and served Monday afternoon.
