Dear Paul,

The affidavit was sworn this afternoon. The affidavit and exhibit bundle has been sent to Michael Cashion. Angelo alerted him to the fact that it was likely to be sworn this afternoon, but asked for his comment in any event, suggesting that unless there is something drastically wrong, it could be fixed in a supplementary affidavit.

If you are happy to look over the exhibit bundle with the affidavit before service, that would be great. I can bring it over at any time. Once settled, copies will have to be made for filing and service (which Angelo hopes to do on Monday afternoon).

Also, Angelo and I agree with your suggestion to try and serve what we have reviewed of the subpoenaed material as of tomorrow by next Wednesday, and then start on the next lot.

Angelo and I are available any time tomorrow.

Kind regards,

Subject Biles - Maxwell affidavit

12/05/2011 02:23 PM

Hi Jodie

As discussed after Court last Wednesday, Maxwell's affidavit should be sent to Michael Cashion who indicated that he is happy to look over it.

I understand that Maxwell is with you today and proposes to swear it once final revisions have been made. Notwithstanding this – and given that the affidavit is not due to be served until next Wednesday - I suggest:

1. If it has not been sent to Michael then please do so and invite him to comment.

2. You may recall that I considered only part of the exhibit before it was reorganised so if you would like me to look over it before it is served then please let me know.

In the meantime, I will continue to consider the subpoenaed documents. Perhaps we should take stock tomorrow afternoon of what has been reviewed and prepare it for service next Wednesday. We can thereafter concentrate on going through the next tranche. Let me know how you and Angelo would like to proceed.

Kind regards
