Dear Sir/Madam

I have known Noel Callaghan for over 30 years. He is one of a handful of coaches in the world who could teach a total beginner and a top flight professional on the ATP or WTA tours and every level in between. Such is his knowledge, experience and tennis acumen.

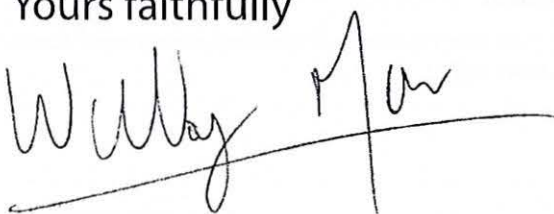

As a player on the ATP tour, I employed Noel as my coach for training blocks at home and on the road during tournaments for a number of years, with great success.

Noel's experience in the game is unparalleled, from a great player background Noel has transitioned into a great coach. He is also a skilled program writer, Academy Director, club coach and facilitator with the professional skills, personality and diplomacy to make everything run smoothly.

I have asked Noel to help me on promotional tours, where his ability to make a clinic or corporate day work with all the different playing levels and ego's of finesses is second to none.

There isn't a job in Tennis that I wouldn't highly recommend Noel for. He has achieved so much and many Australian players have spent beneficial time on court with him.

Yours faithfully

Wally Masur
