LETTER DATED
THURSDAY A.M

14/9/98

Spoke with Amanda this morning - she is extremely happy with [redacted] efforts - couldn't be better she indicated - stalked also of Noel - to quote - "we'll get him" - not sure yet who will trigger but she fully realizes what groundwork went into his dealings with [redacted] + its good to let her mention that he was paid for the privilege. I believe he was to (or is away now) escort the team to work with [redacted] who receives that is this time. It appears Noel has been conducting a smear campaign for you on [redacted] - [redacted] discussed matters that go back to 15 which implicate Noel's interference - albeit indirectly at that point but harmful to [redacted] reputation. How sad to realize this person who you trusted with your daughter used his position for himself with no regard personally or professionally in her tennis at her most vulnerable time - but we are not in a hurry to pursue this - justice will come one day for everyone involved.

I have read Amanda a copy of the magazine article in the past.

There has been some calls recently regarding our 'Mutual problem'. Bob Giltinan is now in the picture and very concerned, did Amanda phone you? We have not done anything... yet! Very cautious. All ^{BXJ} tennis pursuits have had a positive image this last 18mths. Had a call last wk from the one in question offering some involvement for ^{BXJ}, what a change, but do think the heat is being applied. I spoke glowingly of all she is doing. We know he has been the source of bad comments for ^{BXJ} this last 12 mths, unjustly so. ^{BXJ} is quite open with us and with those who might help if that option is taken. But she is not openly commenting (legalities must be attended to first). If you wish to call me on this issue ^{BXD} please do so. Wonder what your thoughts are. Are you planning any visit back here at all?
