Dear

Thank you for your email.

It is entirely up to you what you wish to tell me. You have already responded to the questions which I have asked and at this stage I require nothing further from you.

I have been instructed to investigate and report to TNSW on the allegations made by My brief goes no wider than that.

My investigation is confidential to TSNW. I am hopeful to have my report to the Board of TNSW next week and I expect it to make a decision shortly after that. I will ensure you are advised of the outcome.

Thank you once again for your assistance.

Regards
 Maria Shand

Dear Maria,

In regard to the letters I have ,I will need to go to a fax facility as i have a fax modem and I have no scanner.I will fax the appropriate areas , referring to Noel and also the date of each letter.
 In regard to myself,it is very difficult.I was getting advice frm a lawyer but after speaking more at length she has to refer me to a criminal lawyer.Therefore I couldn't really go further into detail at the moment.I'm not sure how you are bound in confidentiality if I told you more,or if it would be a conflict of interest,since you are employed by tennis NSW.Therefore this is all I can say at the moment.

What exactly are you wanting from me and how will this affect the investigation and will the tennis association be taking this further legally if and when they have cause ???

Kind regards,

BXD
