Dear Craig,

Please find attached draft:

1. letter to Noel Callaghan's solicitor, Stephen Healy
 (I confirm I advised Stephehn Healy of the Board's decision yesterday afternoon. I also told him (a) that we would not have the opportunity of communicating the decision to <sup>BXJ</sup> until Monday and (b) that I would confirm the matter along with some other issues in writing).

2. letter to NSWIS' solicitor, Colin Love.

3. letter from TNSW to <sup>BXJ</sup>

4. memorandum to TNSW Board members and Councillors.

If the letter to <sup>BXJ</sup> is in order you should engross it and send it to her by courier ASAP on Monday.

You will note all the letters are near identical. These are the decisions the TNSW Board have made. The Board must close ranks behind this decision. All copies of Maria's report and Allan Sullivan's advice should be returned to you immediately. No member of the Board should make any comment to any third party regarding the matter. Any media inquiries should be directed to you. That is you should be the sole TNSW spokesman on this matter. At this stage I think that a press release is NOT necessary. What is necessary is that the Board close ranks and keep the matter confidential pending any inquiries that may be initiated by the REDACTED

If the letters to Healy and Love are OK please ring Jenny on REDACTED and she will ensure that are sent tomorrow morning.

I will generally be available tomorrow am on my mobile and will be in the office after about 10.30 am. I will call to discuss further then.

Regards,

Ian Fullagar
