Enter MACBETH, SEYTON, and Soldiers, with drum and colours.

MACBETH

Hang out our banners on the outward walls;
 The cry is still 'They come:' our castle's strength
 Will laugh a siege to scorn: here let them lie
 Till famine and the ague eat them up:
 Were they not forced with those that should be purs,
 We might have met them dareful, beard to beard,
 And beat them backward home.
A cry of women within
 What is that noise?

SEYTON

It is the cry of women, my good lord.
Exit

MACBETH

I have almost forgot the taste of fears;
 The time has been, my senses would have cool'd
 To hear a night-shriek; and my fell of hair
