INCIDENT:

The lead up to today's incident has been brewing up from the past term & a half 2 terms ago. It started off just in our year group rumbling & wrestling which our whole year group was involved in, it progressed from there to more serious rumbling & positions in the dorm. ~~and~~ It never got to the point where anyone was forced into something they didn't want to do though. More recently with the ~~incident~~ incident about CLB CLB it started a couple of days ago with CLA & CLB & CLB & CLA had a verbal argument only jokingly & it resulted in CLB putting toothpaste on CLA face. CLA then was going to get him back last night but didn't so him DFD & DFC did something today (I don't know because I was in sick bay).

I was involved with the happenings over the past 2 terms but recently it has all slowed down until this incident but after this it will stop. ~~but~~ it was stupid & immature for it to get so out of hand.

The reason why CLA did this to CLB is because CLB aggravates & picks at someone till they snap & then he wonders why but it's still no excuse.

We asked people with the implement but it wasn't used as a weapon - is such. Verbal abuse towards REDACTED & REDACTED from Myself, DFB, DFD, CLA, DFC REDACTED towards REDACTED & CLB
