INCIDENT:

On Monday 7th of August CLB and I were having a shower, when him and I got into a water fight. This was only intended as a game and never was an attempt at 'bullying'. The following night CLB put toothpaste on my face at 2 o'clock in the morning as a payback for our water fight. This made me very angry as I was hard at study and not in the mood.

On the 11th / 8 / 2000 at recess I decided to get CLB back with the help of my friends DFC DFD and myself. I held CLB down and was unaware of what DFC was doing. DFD put 'shoe polish' on CLB face, because CLB had placed toothpaste on my face the night before. This led to CLB getting angry as I was when CLB put toothpaste on me.

At the time I never intended on bullying him and I was not apart of the incident with REDACTED and was unaware of any other incidents that happened on that day. I believe we both were in the wrong and this was not an attempt to bully him but rather as a payback for what he did to me.
