Dear Daphne,

Cheryl Eldridge has asked me to write to you and to say that she is not prepared to accept the offer made to her.

Cheryl does not think that the offer made is commensurate with her suffering and is particularly upset that her sister received a much higher amount when she lodged her complaint with the Salvation Army some 6 years ago although, according to Cheryl, she was there for a shorter period of time and suffered less.

Yours sincerely,

John Lucas.

*Daphne to investigate
the compensation given to Cheryl's sister.
