Lt Colonel Cairns

Sydney.

Dear Colonel,

Thank you so much for your very kind gesture in sending REDACTED up to see me last week. It was something I certainly never expected, and I'm just a little concerned that you have gone to such expense just for my benefit. I also think it must have been a very heavy day for REDAC and I hope it did not cause him any stress.

We had a good day together, and I greatly enjoyed his company. He and REDAC were wonderful fellow officers in the last three years of my active officership. REDACT was a very supportive officer to my wife RED at the time.

I trust that the matter of JF has been settled amicably, and to his spiritual benefit in particular. I would still like to see him face to face, not in any threatening way, but to talk over any differences. If he still holds grudges against me, there is no way he will make spiritual progress.

Once again thank you for your great kindness. I trust that there will be no more similar situations. I assure you of my prayer for you all, especially delicate ones such as JF has brought to your notice.

May The Lord bless you each
