UNDERTAKINGS ENTERED INTO BY AN OFFICER

- 1. I accept and will faithfully teach the doctrines of The Salvation Army.
- 2. I will observe the orders and regulations of The Salvation Army.
- 3. I will not do or say enything to injure The Salvation Army, or to reflect unfavourably upon its integrity and purpose.
- 4. I will totally abstain from the use of intoxicating drink, tobacco, pernicious drugs, and any other practice inconsistent with Salvation Army standards.
- 5. I will accept the direction of my leaders in regard to my appointments, trusting that God will guide them in sending me where I can most effectually advance the Kingdom of Christ. I will faithfully fulfil all the requirements thereof; and will not engage in other remunerative employment.
- 6. I give myself of my own free will to the work of The Salvation Army, and understand that there is no contract of service, and that accordingly I will have no legal claims upon the Army. I understand and agree that, although I may expect to receive an allowance according to an official scale, no allowance is guaranteed to me.
- I will be responsible for my own personal expenses (and those of my dependants), including medical and educational costs, unless provided by The Salvation Army.
- 8. I will not solicit or knowingly encourage any presentation of any gift or testimonial to myself, or use my position as a Salvation Army officer for personal gain.
- 9. I undertake to keep all required records of my work and so account for all monies entrusted to me.
- 10. I will seek to express any creative ability I may have in ways such as writing, song and music composition in order to further the aims and principles of The Salvation Army, and in seeking publication will follow the procedure laid down in orders and regulations.

DECLARATION

- 1. Prayerfully responding to the guidance of God, and willingly accepting the undertakings entered into by an officer, I make this application to be re-accepted for service as an officer of The Salvation Army.
- 2. In making this application, I am unaware of any circumstance which, if known, would prevent my acceptance by The Salvation Army.
- I declare it to be my intention, as God shall help me, to give lifelong service as a good and faithful officer of The Salvation Army.
 Should unforeseen circumstances compel my withdrawal, I discharge The Salvation Army from any obligation.
