Dear Sirs

SALVATION ARMY & JG

We act for The Salvation Army Australian Eastern Territory and refer to your letter to them of 7 November 1997.

We note your assertions. The Salvation Army formally denies that it has any liability to your client arising out of the assaults by John Lane. Furthermore, we note that any action at law against the Army is statute barred.

That having been said, the Salvation Army is prepared to assist your client in having counselling and treatment. We note that until now however, the invitation expressed by Lt. Colonel Jessop in his letter of 10 December 1996 has not been taken up. In that regard would you please let us know whether your client has arranged for any counselling herself or whether she would like the Army to organise counselling on her behalf.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully
 DUNHILL MADDEN BUTLER
