

Hi Daphne

I will be going in to sign the documentation regarding the "compensation" tomorrow, (10.07.09). The only addition I would request is that The Salvation Army provide ongoing support financially specifically for my pysical counselling for as long as i require that support, because 30 years of unhealthy and destructive coping mechanisms are not rectified "overnight". I am sure both you and your colleagues who deal with these matters would appreciate that fact. Please be assured that I am progressing but it is a long hard road, and I'm working rigourously to achieve "wholeness". But it is going to take time. Also further down the track I would ask that if there are issues that crop up regarding old behaviours in the context a new relationship for example, is it possible that The Salvation Army could pay for a few sessions to help with that.

I would also like to meet with Mj Jenny, perhaps you could forward her my mobile number (REDACTED) so we could arrange a meeting. At this stage I don't want to set anything in concrete with the mentoring, i would just like to see how we connect, I'm sure she is a lovely lady.

regards

JG
