Dear Mr Rundle

The Salvation Army

Thank you for your letter of 9 August 2001 sent to our Sydney agents, Harris Hyde Page.

We have put your allegations to the officers named by you and also to Mr Ellis. We would like now to meet again with you in conference to discuss the various responses to your statements and also the report of Mr REDACTED kindly provided to us by you.

We confirm that the Salvation Army will pay the reasonable costs of Mr REDACTED for his report and also your costs of travelling to and from the previous meeting with Annette Wilson.

As explained to you in our telephone conversation on 17 August 2001 we would like to confer with you and either your legal adviser and/or Mr REDACTED or any other supporting person. We propose to canvass with you at such a meeting the following:

- the progress of the Salvation Army investigation to date;
- Your response to the information we have obtained from Major Osborne, Major Huxley, and Major Laurens;
- The most appropriate form of future treatment;
- agreement as to a future timetable leading to a possible mutually satisfactory resolution;
- discussion as to an appropriate and mutually satisfactory acknowledgment of trauma;
- answer as best we are able, any other queries or requests that you may have.

Please contact us to confirm a mutually convenient time for such a conference.

Yours faithfully

Nevett ford
