Dear Philip Brewin/ Nevett Ford,

I'm replying to your letter of August 11 th 2000. Somehow this letter got overlooked/ misplaced, and I only found it, unopened, yesterday when clearing up a pile of papers. My considerable apologies, and thank you for writing. I have spoken to John's wife and given her details over the phone, and will forward your letter today. I do hope the long delay will not affect a good outcome. I am very pleased to hear the Salvation Army have instructed you to proceed as you describe. With my best wishes, yours sincerely,

BMM
