

Dear David,

The inquiry you lodged through the website of the Salvation Army's in Sydney requesting a review of your settled claim has been referred to me, Melbourne, for response .

I have spoken to our lawyers, Nevett Ford (Mr Philip Brewin). That firm handled the claim brought by you against The Salvation Army in 2002. At that time you had instructed Slater & Gordon to act on your behalf and settlement was reached after direct negotiation with that firm.

At that time you also signed Deed of Release releasing The Salvation Army from any further claims was signed. Your signing was witnessed by your lawyer at Slater and Gordon who would also have explained it's effect to you.

That being so if you wish to re-open your claim we suggest you re-engage Slater and Gordon Lawyers or otherwise contact the Law Institute of Victoria (Ph 03 9607 9311 ) for a referral of a law firm who practices in this area of the law.

Yours Faithfully,
