MESSAGE:

Tony,

We agree with your recommendation that opinions be shared between legal advisers to The Salvation Army.

This territory is a little sensitive to two aspects referred to in paragraph 4 of your letter dated 15 April 1997.

The Army has only become aware of the full extent of offences as a result of Smith's recent admissions.

Regarding compensation, this Territory has taken the view that it is prepared to consider compensation within an overall response to victims of Smith. There is to us a difference between 'defending claims' and being 'prepared to consider' claims.

Regards,
